Brauner Safety Services, Inc. was formed by Jim Brauner in 2012 and has quickly become an industry leader in the training of Roofing industry professionals. The addition of Christopher Paulin this year as a Brauner team member expands the Brauner service offering to a fully bi-lingual program with more than 75 combined years of first tier national and international roofing experience.

Jim and Chris are widely recognized as having a level of expertise that is not generally found in ordinary "Safety" companies.
